

- We kindly ask you to come to the exam with a black pen - it makes checking the exam easier.
- The student is obliged to solve exam tasks independently. The use of third parties or any electronic devices is prohibited. Failure to follow these recommendations will result in receiving a failing grade in the exam.
- Please come to the exam with your student ID or identification badge with your name and photo
- Avoid short trousers and short skirts.
- Phones, smartwatches and all electronic devices as well as bags, backpacks and other personal items should be left during the exam in the place indicated by the examiners.
- The objection to the question is submitted to the person conducting the examination immediately after the test examination, before leaving the examination room.