

General Informations - Infectious Diseases Course

1. Infectious Diseases course is conducted in the Department of Infectious Diseases UJ CM, Jakubowskiego 2 street. Dates of classes will be given in the syllabus, available on the website.
2. Activities during Infectious Diseases course: e-learning: 26, seminar: 27, classes
3. Goals of Infectious diseases course:
 - To acquaint students with etiopathogenesis, epidemiology, clinical picture, and treatment of selected infectious diseases
 - Acquaintance with the principles of preventing and treating infectious diseases occurring sporadically and epidemically.
 - Acquaintance with the principles of infection prevention and safe work with highly contagious patients
4. Teaching methods – case study, clinical classes, seminar, lecture
5. Examination methods one choice test.
6. Additional information - in case of excused absence from classes it should be worked out with assistance after agreement.
7. Literature
 - Obligatory - F. Southwick Infectious Diseases Clinical Short Course, 4th edition, 2020
 - Optional- E.C. Jong, D.L. Stevens: Netter's Infectious Diseases, 2nd edition, 2021
8. Course co-ordinator – Professor Monika Bociąga-Jasik MD, PhD
email: monika.bociaga-jasik@uj.edu.pl